

Report of 46th IGS Local Chapter Inauguration at Aurangabad

Indian Geotechnical Society's 46th - Local chapter was formally inaugurated at Aurangabad on 3rd Oct.2019 in Department of Civil Engineering, Marathwada Institute of Technology, Beed by pass road, Aurangabad.

The Honorable Secretary of IGS – Dr. J.T. Shahu was the Chief Guest. Dr. Dasaka S. Murthy, Secretary – IGS Mumbai Chapter and Er. Vikas Patil, Chairman- IGS Pune chapter were Guest of honour. Dr. N.G. Patil, Principal, MIT were present. The President of G.S. Mandal's, MIT group of institutions, Dr. Y.A. Kawade presided over the function.

Dr. Manish S. Dixit, Secretary- IGS Aurangabad Chapter gave the preamble and informed about the objectives and goals of forming the chapter in Aurangabad. He emphasized on conducting proper geotechnical investigations so that the people and society as a whole will get benefitted from it.

Dr. J.T. Shahu discussed the necessity of proper geotechnical investigation prior to any constructions. Dr. Dasaka S. Murthy and Er. Vikas Patil elaborated on the importance of geotechnical studies. Dr. Y.A. Kawade gave the presidential address.

Er. S.G. Quadri, Joint Secretary, IGS Aurangabad chapter conducted the proceedings and gave the vote of thanks.

The program ended by reciting national anthem.

Dignitaries lighting the traditional lamp

Felicitation of Dr. J.T. Shahu by Hon'ble Dr. Y. A. Kawade, President, G.S. Mandal's, MIT Group of Institutions.

Felicitatation of Dr. Dasaka S. Murthy by Dr. N.G. Patil, Principal, MIT

Felicitatation of Er. Vikas Patil by Dr. M.S. Dixit

Section of Audience

Section of Audience

Preamble of IGS Aurangabad Chapter by Dr. M.S. Dixit

Speech by Dr. J.T. Shahu

Speech by Dr. Dasaka S. Murthy

Speech by Er. Vikas Patil

Speech by Dr. N.G. Patil

Presidential address by Hon'ble Dr. Y.A. Kawade

Unveiling of IGS Aurangabad chapter board

Group Photo-1

Group Photo-2