

Lecture Talk on “Opportunities in Construction industries and skills required by employers”

A lecture talk on “Opportunities in Construction industries and skills required by employers” was organized on 19 August 2019 from 10:00 to 12:00 am by Civil Engineering Department, MIT, Aurangabad . It was delivered by Er.Parimal Marathe , Director, Progressive Expert Consulting Pvt Ltd for third year students.

He guided students regarding implementation of theory in practice and also delivers the importance of civil engineering, Soft skills, Time management, Construction management, Use of software and use of new technology as well as new materials in market.

Total number of students were 54. The students were encouraged to participate in discussion after completion of lecture talk. Students were motivated to how become enterprenure after completion of degree and discussed the requirement of employer when they are interested to be work on site with builder, contractors and structural designers.

The expert talk were organized by Dr. M.N. Mangulkar under guidance of Head of department Dr M.S. Dixit. Guest profile was conveyed by Ms Archana Pathak. V.R. Upadhaye, Y.D. Shermale, Alka Wevhal were the staff members present for the expert talk.

Dr. M.S.Dixit (HOD) felicitating expert Er. Parimal Marathe

Er. Parimal Marathe guiding the students